

St. Clare's Primary School Newsletter

October 2016

Mrs. Colette White, Principal

Happy Halloween

Welcome to our October newsletter. As we approach the Halloween break, please take note of the school closures.

School closes on Friday 28th October at 12.00 pm. and reopens Monday 7th November at 8.55am.

Children are invited to wear fancy dress on Friday 28th October; each child should bring £1 which will be donated to charity.

Join the Credit Union!

It's never too soon to teach children the importance of saving. Begin the journey by encouraging your child to join the Credit Union. Money is collected each Wednesday and forms are available in the school office.

Flu Vaccine Day

The annual Flu Vaccine will be administered to pupils on Thursday 27th October. All pupils have received a parental permission form which must be returned to the school as soon as possible.

Patrol Man

Please note that there will be no patrol man on duty at Cupar Street until further notice.
